

Not Just Children's Stories:
A Tale of Four Lepers
 2 Kings 7:1-9

Sunday Class Lesson
 Anna Church of Christ
 Gospel Meeting 2026

Things were about as bad as they could get. Through rebellion and idolatry, northern Israel had been brought low by God. Horrors that should have never been imagined were now daily a reality.

The capital city of Samaria was under siege by Ben-Hadad of Syria (Aram). In the horror of this darkness a ray of hope shone brightly. God's prophet Elisha pronounced a great deliverance that would occur in less than 24 hours - one that was unbelievable - seemingly too good to be true.

Of all the people to herald this message of deliverance, it was _____ . It was their _____ that made all the _____ . Realities:

- I. They _____ to _____ there (3)
- II. They were _____ to _____ for _____ (4)
- III. The _____ became the _____ to _____ (7-8)
- IV. They _____ their _____ and _____ (9)

Sharing the _____ is really _____ telling _____ where to _____ .

A. Times of _____ / _____

B. People dealing with _____

C. Times of _____ / _____

D. _____

E. _____